

STATE FUND'S Employer Education Series

Active Shooter Safety Training

Run? Hide? Fight? How prepared are you and your employees to react in an active shooter situation?

Captain Brian Stephens from the Eureka Police Department will provide information and tips on how to avoid being a victim in an active shooter situation. A dispatch officer will also provide information on how to call in an ongoing incident. Training will include interactive exercises. Morning and afternoon sessions are available.

Registration is limited to 50 per session.
