

Active Shooter Preparedness

Presented by State Fund and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security

State Fund, in partnership with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), is presenting free Active Shooter Preparedness seminars statewide. Experienced Security Advisors from the DHS will provide information about useful actions that all businesses can take to prepare for an active shooter event. The presentation is fast-paced, interactive, and includes lessons learned from previous active shooter incidents.

Monday, October 15, 2018
9AM - 12PM in English

Red Lion Hotel
1929 4th Street
Eureka, CA 95501

Participants will learn:

- The characteristics of an active shooter situation
- How to identify and report criminal planning and preparatory acts
- How to prepare and respond to active shooter and workplace violence incidents
